

2017-18 Keller Heritage Center Photo Contest

Stevens County Historical Society's Keller Heritage Center Photo Contest hopes to focus attention on the beauty found at the Keller Heritage Park, Colville, Washington. Prizes will be awarded for "Best for advertising the museum visually", "Best represents a historical perspective or piece of machinery", "Best represents flora/fauna that live around the grounds", and "Most artistic representation", covering the March 1 to October 30, 2018 timeframe. Winning photographs will be featured in our newsletter, articles in local papers, online, and postcards may be created from the winning photographs for sale in our store.

CONTEST RULES

An official entry form, below, must be completed for each photograph submitted. All photos must be taken at the Keller Heritage Center. Photographs are not allowed inside the museum to protect artifacts.

The contest is open to all photographers, except for contest judges. Entrants agree to allow Stevens County Historical Society to publish any submitted photograph in its website or other materials to help support SCHS's mission to promote and preserve the heritage of Stevens County. Photographers must have permission from any person whose face is shown in their photos. Photographs submitted must be taken by the photographer.

Submit digital copy, 300dpi JPEG is best, to schswa1903@gmail.com or hard copy to SCHS at PO Box 25, Colville, WA 99114 or dropped off on Wednesdays at the museum between 10 and 3 p.m. If the photograph is a winner a digital copy will be requested.

All entries are due no later than November 15th, 2018, for the second season. Winners will be notified by email.

Winners will receive a $25 check and a Charles Russell print.
